Democracy Go To War But Only In Self Defense

By J. M. Roberts, Jr.

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst It may have been improper for the United States Secretary of the Navy to suggest starting a war with anybody for any purpose, but Mr. Matthews has certainly brought into the open an angle of American affairs which has occupied many minds, both high and low, for several years.

All of us have heard the question, broached by people who have accepted the Russian cold war as just as deadly in its purposes as any shooting war. "Why don't we go ahead and get it over

The answers are just as obvious as the spirit which prompts the question. The world is in ferment, and war now, even a war which was successful in eliminating a regime which ruthlessly uses the ferment for its own imperialist ends, would not settle it, just as it has never settled anything.

White House Won't Fire Acheson:

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, - CABINET CHANGES-Some people around the White House have been angling to get Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of Defense Johnson out of the cabinet, but the angling hasn't come from Mr. Big himself. The other day a White House assistant approached Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire with the idea that he become secretary of state. The proposition was hedged with such reservations as "I'm only talking for myself, you understand, but -. " . . . Bridges said he wasn't interested. . . . Undoubtedly the assistant told the truth when he said he was only talking for himself, because Truman invariably freezes his cabinet members when they are under attack. . . . What bothers him most is the fact that these two particular cabinet members are at each others throats. You can't talk ten minutes with Louey Johnson's staff - or sometimes even with Johnson himself-without hearing a crack against the secretary of state.

AMBITION BURNS ETERNAL - A friend was talking to Secretary of Defense Johnson. He said: "Mr. Secretary, a lot of people are talking about you for president."

"Oh, I'm not interested in that," said Louey condescendingly.

A minute later, however, he asked: "Were they important people?"

BALLOONS TO RUSSIA—Soviet spokesmen are livid over the propaganda balloons being released in Western Germany, so much so that one broadcaster devoted most of his air time last week to denouncing these balloons. . . . The present balloon idea is not quite the same as that proposed by this writer two years ago, but nevertheless is effective. The balloons are given visitors to the Marshall plan exhibition in Bremen, West Germany, with instructions to release them with a post card to Communists in East Germany. . . . Being small, the balloons can not float to Russia, but apparently are raising cain with Russianized Germany. . . .

Since the winds blow steadily from Germany into Russia, it would be a simple matter to float larger balloons into Russia itself carrying propaganda messages, soap, tea, or even small

BEHIND KOREAN LINES-U.S. intelligence reports from inside North Korea have it that North Koreans were promised 1,300 tanks by Marshal Shtikov and 400 airplanes-to be delivered by June 1. About half that number came through. Shtikov also promised that the United States would be so bogged down in the rest of the world that she could not resist in Korea, and that Communist China would help out if necessary. None of these pledges has been

AIR CRASH FRIENDS-Two Los Angeles lawyers, en route to Washington to argue opposite sides of a rent case, happened to board the same ill-fated plane—the one whose propeller tore loose and ripped through the fuselage near Denver. When the accident occurred, the two lawyers, G. B. Baumen, representing the landlords, and Alex Schullman, representing the tenants-were so sure that they were plunging to deaths that they forgot their differences, dramatically shook hands and said good-bye forever. When the plane made a safe landing, however, they hurried on to Washing-WIRE-TAPPING-Here's part of the closedous others: Lt. Shimon: "May I make a suggestion?"

Sen. Pepper: "Yes, go ahead." Shimon: "Will you check with Private Mc-Hale, Mr. Nolan and Danny Maher and have them go to Drew Pearson's office and get that file." (He referred to his own personal police

Pepper: "Do you believe Mr. Pearson has it?" Shimon: "I am beginning to suspect that from what I have been reading. Try it that way and you will get the file."

WASTED MONEY-It looks like Admiral W. M. Callaghan, the tough-talking head of the Navy's transport service, was going to duplicate a lot of shipping across the Pacific. Instead of using American shipping lines already in operation to Japan, the admiral has broken 41 troop transports out of mothballs. These will parallel American private shipping lines to which the U.S. government already pays a handsome subsidy. The American Presidents lines, for instance, is owned by Uncle Sam, yet its ships are running almost empty to Japan while Admiral Callaghan duplicates its service with

Navy transports. REAL FORESIGHT-The Taft people are really looking ahead. Already they are bidding for delegates at the 1952 GOP presidential convention. In order to corral New York's big fistful of delegates, Taft people sent $7,000 to Albany to help the pre-convention fight of Lt. Gov. Joe Hanley to become governor. They figure Joe will remember their generosity two years later. . . . Incidentally, Democratic Governor Lausche of Ohio, who came out for Taft, now says privately that his man is slipping. . . . Actually, the Ohio election may depend on a contested ruling of the Ohio attorney general that illiterate voters are entitled to aid in marking their ballots. Taft's campaign manager, Willis B. Gradison, is worried-because thousands of Negroes who moved from the south during the war years will probably vote against Taft in view of his Dixiecrat flirtation.

WILL THERE BERATIONING?—The battle over controls really boils down to this: The Republicans don't what Truman to get the power to fix prices unless he also fixes wages. The White House, in turn, isn't actually averse to having wages and prices hooked together. It might even save Truman a lot of political headaches. But Truman advisers are emphatically and categorically opposed to being required by law to control ALL prices. . . . Most prices won't need controlling for some time, they argue, and there is no use regulating pencils at the same time you regulate strategic copper and steel. . . . Furthermore, it's almost impossible to control prices without rationing. And to put across rationing requires a tremendous bureaucracy, thousands of clerks, and three months time to print ration coupons.

GOP TACTICS-GOP strategy to back war controls was cooked up at a closed-door meeting in the office of Indiana's Charlie Halleck. Believe it or not but the plan was unfolded by Rep. Jesse Wolcott of Michigan, the man who led the fight to kill price controls in the 79th Congress. . . . Tip-off on the reasons behind Republican strategy may be found in the National Association of Manufacturers news letter, as follows: "Some Republican circles thought it would be well to support the Baruch plan to embarrass the administration. The Republicans would have voted for the plan and expected the administration to defeat it. Then, if prices had gone up, the Republicans could point to the fact that they had advocated the Baruch

Lansing's 'No-Fix Traffic Policy Would Be Good for All Areas

By Sumner Ahlbum

Who gets hurt when you run downtown and fix a traffic ticket you got for driving too fast, or maybe for sneaking through a stop sign when you thought you wouldn't get caught?

Nobody perhaps-until the next time you're in a hurry. You know if you're stopped you can get it quashed, so you try to beat the red light and another car beats you instead; or you forget what the speed-limit sign says, and a little boy suddenly chases his ball out in front

It couldn't happen to you, of course .- or

The good citizens of Lansing, Mich., didn't think so. Like people anywhere else, they figured paying a traffic fine was all right for the other fellow, but why bother if you had a friend at City Hall?

Then Lansing's city officials began to get uneasy. A record of 21 traffic fatalities and thousands of personal injury and property damage accidents in a city of about 100,000 didn't seem the way it should be.

They called in traffic experts. Their most important single recommendation, Murray Teigh Bloom points out in his ticket-fix survey in Woman's Home Companion, was: "If people know they can fix tickets they're not apt to drive safely. A strict enforcement setup with teeth in it is badly needed."

Despite threats they were committing political suicide, Lansing officials swore off ticket fixing. They put a penalty on it of 90 days in jail or a $100 fine. With the help of the Lansing State Journal, which aired all traffic violations in a daily column, they made it stick.

Today the National Safety Council calls Lansing the safest traffic city in America.

The honor came as the result of the no-fix policy and a new kind of uniform traffic ticket -ideas which have spread to 78 other Michigan cities and many other places.

Each one of these, however, is an oasis of safety surrounded by cities and towns where "nobody's going to get hurt if you fix it" is the blind philosophy. Only New Jersey's nonfix rule embraces the entire state - and it's virtually unbeatable.

Your town-and your state-could have it that way, too. Or would you rather maintain a double standard of those who can fix and those who can't? That way, you'll get to meet the privileged character who doesn't believe in traffic laws because he knows the right boys. You'll probably meet him when he tries to beat the red light-as you're going through on the

Caviar and Applesauce

Jacob Malik, the UN Security Council president who kept giving the floor to Jacob Malik, the UN delegate from Russia, decided to follow the usual practice of giving a dinner party for the rest of the delegates at the end of his term as president.

The reasoning may have been that by now his tactics had given all the other representatives an ulcer or two, and they would stick to a milk diet. On the other hand, he may have wanted to serve that applesauce U. S. Delegate Warren Austin insisted Malik was using to fill his jar of propaganda tricks.

RELAXED, EVEN IF NOT RELEASED

We have seen that there can never be complete relaxation unless that relaxation rests ultimately in the love and goodness of God. That love and goodness may deny the thing asked for, but only in order to give something better. The Hebrew young men could say: "God . . . is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, . . we will not serve thy gods." (Daniel 3:17, 18.) "But if not"-if our confidence in this immediate deliverance is unfulfiiled, nevertheless we go straight on. They did not rest their confidence on that immediate deliverance, but in the ultimate love and goodness of God. That is faith, Don't rest your faith in some particular happening, but in the goodness of God which will be the same whether that particular thing happens or not. "He will deliver . . . but if not" -sometimes you will have to live on "but if not," and go straight

Rows of beautiful trees were laid low in a storm. Reason. The water was too near the surface; so the trees did not have to put their roots deep down to find water; hence the tragedy. God may deny us a surface answer in order to get us to put our roots deeper into eternal reality, so that in some future storm we shall be unmoved.

Nothing that happens can hurt me, Whether I lose or win.

Though life may be changed on the surface, I do my main living within."

Said some Christians when the storm of war was raging over Europe and engulfing everybody; "On the surface there is storm, but 20 fathoms down it is quite calm.

Someone asked a happy Negro how he remained calm and poised and cheerful; to which he replied, "I have learned to co-operate with the inevitable." That is the secret! You cooperate with the immediate inevitable because you know that in and through things God's will is being worked out, and that Will wills your good

My God and Father, I shall have to center down in Thee. I cannot center down in the immediate, so I will have to center down in the ultimate. My faith looks, not at a panorama, but at a Person. "Change and decay in all around I see; O Thou, who changest not, abide with me," Amen,

Mr. Anthamatten, 4731 South 32nd West Ave., Tulsa 7, Oklahama, suffered from stomach distress for quite some time. He had spent much money trying everything possible for relief and was in bad health when he started taking HADA-COL. He says, "After taking three bottles of the $3.50 size, I've gained 27 pounds and now eat anything I desire and positively have no trouble." (HAD-ACOL gives such wonderful results because it actually relieves the REAL CAUSE of stomach distress [gas pains, heartburn, indigestion after eating] due to such deficiencies. And continued use of this great HADACOL helps prevent

Mrs, Mabel Kitchen, 1650 Amsterdam, Cincinnati, Ohio. "Before I started taking HADA-COL I had aches and pains of neuritis in my shoulders, my back and arms. I could hardly move without having those terrible pains. Then I heard about HADACOL. After the second bottle the pains and aches were about gone. I'm now starting my fourth bottle and am on top of the world. I eat well and, best of all, the aches and pains are completely gone." (Mrs. Kitchen is a very smart woman because she relieves the REAL CAUSE of her neuritis pains due to such deficiencies. HADACOL often brings a wonderful improve-

Mrs. J. Scieszinski, 514 Kruger, Ottumica, lowa. writes: "My daughter, Marilyn Sue, is 5 years old and for some time lacked pep, had a poor appetite, was generally run-down. Since giving her HADACOL, we have noticed wonderful results . . . she has a much better appetite, eats everything on the table and doesn't seem tired like she used to. Incidentally, she likes to take HADACOL, too." (HADACOL is a great 'builder-upper' for sick, nervous, puny kids whose systems lack precious Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin. Mr. Henry Angel, RD No. 1, Springfield, Ohio. "I used to suffer great pain from neuritis aches in all parts of my body, especially in my legs, arms and shoulders. I never got any real relief until I tried HADACOL. After taking several bottles, my pain is all gone. And I'm working every day." (Now there's a smart man! Mr. Angel took HADA-COL and relieved the REAL CAUSE of his neuritis pains because they were due to such deficiencies. Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—vital elements every human being must have to maintain good health. You owe it to yourself to give HADACOL a fair trial. Many doctors recommend this great new HADACOL. It's sold on a strict money-back guarantee. Trial size, $1.25.
